

I want to state that the Telephone Privacy Act that IN has instated is great! I was getting many unwanted calls until I signed up. This type of law should be entirely up to each state - not a Federal agency to put into effect. Don't implement any proposals to what IN already has and possibly undo the good results we have now.

Thank you, Donna K. Cox